

Leisure Time Reminiscence: Music and Dance

Where was your local dance hall?

Who were your favourite singers and bands in your teens and twenties?

Do you remember?

- In 1959 a 78rpm hit song; embassy records would have cost 4/- from Woolworths.
- In 1959 a pair of Bond Street nylon tights would have cost 7/11d.
- In 1957 the average weekly wage was just £10.

No 1 hits for the longest number of weeks

- 1952 "Here in my heart" Al Martino
- 1953 "I Believe" Frankie Lane
- 1954 "Cara Mia" David Whitfield
- 1955 "Rose Marie" Slim Whitman
- 1957 "Diana" Paul Anka
- 1962 "Wonderful Land" Shadows

Did you buy one?